OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

April 5, 1963

Dear Mr. Cline:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me the report of the meetings which we attended last fall out at your headquarters. I read with particular interest the complete printed report of the talk given by [redacted] and found it, as I did then, of keen interest to us. I also noted the continued discussion on the subject of a special disarmament section which was helpful and which point, as you know, we are continuing to follow with the hope of arriving at a useful mechanism to take greater advantage of the intelligence input.

Thanks again for your interest and cooperation and with best regards, I am,

Sincerely,

Bill Foster
